Additional Fees 2022

Use of Club Allocated Mooring Space

€50 / Boat / Year

This fee contributes to the Club's Foreshore license and management of the mooring space allocation.

The Club Member, to whom the mooring position is allocated, within the Club's Foreshore License Area, is responsible for laying the mooring using suitable materials and carrying out regular inspection and maintenance to ensure the mooring is secure.

This fee does not include the cost of a mooring, just the use of the CBC Foreshore.

If you wish to purchase a club mooring please contact the "CBC Moorings Master", Jackie Ward.

Cost of Maintenance / Inspection / Materials will be back charged to the user at cost.

CBC accepts no responsibility for any mooring, even after a diver check deems it ok.

Storage

Storage in Club Compounds, beside Clubhouse and at Pier, will be charged as follows

Boats / Cradles / Trailers (Boats on a cradle/trailer are considered one unit)

There are 3 size groups,

under 4m, 24 euro per season or 48 euro for the year

4 to 6m 72 euro per season or 144 euro for the year

over 6m 96 euro per season or 192 euro for the year

There are 3 terms, Winter, Summer or Both
